Navigating through the Haze

As ASEAN poise itself for the path of pandemic recovery, many ASEAN economies are gradually relaxing controls in bid to rebuild a more robust post-pandemic future.

Throughout 2Q and 3Q 2021, most markets are kept on tenterhooks from bouts of correction driven by concerns over taper fears, inflationary pressures and resurgence of COVID in some ASEAN countries. Against a backdrop of such headwinds and uncertainties, what are the challenges and opportunities for investors as we head into 2022?

We are pleased to provide our insights on issues that we believe will affect investors by cordially inviting you to join our webinar as our Chief Investment Officer, Francis Eng Tuck Meng, and our Head of Advisory, Yuki Chen Wai Kee, show us how to navigate through the current investment haze for better opportunities in the new year.
